Source met SUBJECT in 1950 when he and his parents moved into the apartment building at the above address where SUBJECT was then residing with HIS parents. Source's mother was a close friend of MARTI'S mother, and Source became quite friendly with SUBJECT and HIS brother, Ivan, and visited SUBJECT'S apartment on the average of four times weekly until 1965 when the Marti family moved from the neighborhood. Source had seen SUBJECT on a few occasions since He moved from the neighborhood, the last time being about three or four months ago.

SUBJECT grew up in the neiborhood of East 167th Street, Bronx, New York, and came from a very respectable home. In addition to HIS older brother, Ivan, SUBJECT also has a young sister, Blanca. HE was graduated from high school in Bronx, New York, further details unknown, and Source believed that HE was working for an insurance company in New York City, further details unknown. SUBJECT is a very quiet, mannerly, respectable young man of good moral character and personal behavior. HE was never known to be adversely involved with law enforcement agencies, nor to engage in any activities inimical to the best interest of the United States. SUBJECT'S parents, whom Source knew as Mr. and Mrs. Marti, were very strict and did not allow SUBJECT to associate with any neighborhood gangs. Most of HIS spare time was spent at home with HIS studies and with HIS hobbies of stamp collecting and the rearing of birds and fish. SUBJECT and HIS brother were influential in starting Source in the hobby of stamp collecting. SUBJECT is considered to be an honest, trustworthy, discreet and financially responsible young man. HE is considered to be a loyal United States citizen, and neither HE nor any other member of HIS family was ever heard to make any statements against the United States or to express sympathy for the Communist philosophy. SUBJECT had no known organizational affiliations, and HE was not known to travel outside of the United States. Source was unable to suggest anyone who may have knowledge of SUBJECT.
